III. Performance Projects, Video Viewing, Critique, Practice, and discussion A. Students will view a classical musical theater video and reconstruct a segment and perform dance and then teach choreography to classmates. In addition, they will view a popular music video and duplicate or embellish choreography. Again students will perform and then teach combinations to class. This gives students the skill of being able to reconstruct works from various times and styles. These demonstrations will be recorded on video in order for students to evaluate their performance as well as enable the instructor to make more detailed observations. B. Students are required to view a musical theater performance and write a critical evaluation of the dance style, choreography, costumes, theme, music, and reaction to the performance. Class discussion will follow to expand analytic and observational skills in viewing dance. C. Students are trained to interpret movement with a sense of musicality, style, and encouraged towards self-expression. The instructor works with students in developing their Jazz dance technical skills. All of the above will be added to students repertoire and will be reinforced through practicum quiz's, video, performance, and daily repetition.	25
